

TRADE ASSOCIATES' DINNER A SUCCESS

First Annual Affair Conducted By Center Trade Associates Attended By Large Number — Variety Program Enjoyed—Awards For Best Decorated Stores Are Made—F. P. Wyman Is Toastmaster

A delicious steak dinner, brief and witty remarks by various speakers, soft and loud music, light and heavy entertainment to suit individual tastes all were included to make the first annual dinner and entertainment of the Arlington Center Trade Associates at Wyman's tavern last Wednesday evening a perfect evening for the seventy-five members and guests present.

F. E. Wyman, president of the association was toastmaster and introduced the speakers while Warren Guild, chairman of the entertainment committee made up of Arthur Littlefield, Sam Alson and Mr. Guild, saw to it that the lengthy program was presented in a smooth fashion.

During the dinner the Junior High West Rhumba Band, eight very clever youngsters, entertained with several smart numbers. Following the dinner, Mr. Wyman introduced Ernest W. Davis, chairman of the board of selection who spoke briefly on the problems which must be settled by this board. Mr. Davis also presented the awards of cash prizes made by the Edison company for the stores which had the best outside decorations during the Christmas season. The winning firms were: R. W. Shattuck, Town Paint & Supply company, Witherell's Glasshouse Goodies and Henry G. Wilton.

Mr. Littlefield next spoke in the interest of the local Community Fund and announced that the Associates will sponsor the showing of Cecil B. DeMille's "King of Kings" at the Town Hall during

"Paul Revere" Night At C. of C. Next Tuesday

What promises to be a most interesting meeting will be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce when Paul Revere Night is observed next Thursday evening at Wyman's Tavern.

A suggestion has been made that the Cyrus Dallin Statue of Paul Revere should be placed in Arlington where Revere stopped on his way to Lexington and Concord.

A number of the High School students, studying art, have made sketches showing the Dallin statue of Revere in the middle of Massachusetts Ave., opposite the High school. Slides on these sketches have been made and will be thrown on the screen at the meeting of the Chamber. Each of these slides has been given a number and the members will be asked to cast their votes, the winner to be presented a cash prize by President Platine, donated by Arthur Birch.

All local citizens are invited to this meeting and they also will be given the privilege of voting.

A. J. Philpott noted art critic and Boston Globe writer is expected to be present and to give a talk on Paul Revere. Mr. Dallin will be present also to tell the story of how he came to make the statue.

The meeting should appeal to all residents of the town who are interested in the beautification of Arlington.

Dinner will be served at 6.30 at a moderate charge. Anyone who cannot come to the dinner, is invited to come to the meeting at 8 p. m. Dinner tickets may be secured at the office of Miss Anna B. Callahan in the center.

Urge Local People Aid Community Federation

Contributions totalling $1,394,521 were reported up to yesterday in the Greater Boston 1937 community fund drive in which Arlington is taking part.

Atty. Philip H. Hendrick of 12 Draper avenue, the Arlington chairman, made the following appeal yesterday:

"In the Greater Boston Community Fund 1937 Campaign, which is to help finance one hundred and four charitable agencies not assisted by federal, state or city funds, I have been named as director for Arlington.

"Arlington people are benefited by these various agencies. In Arlington there are not places such as the Children's Hospital, the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, homes for destitute children, homes for the aged, institutions for the deaf and blind, et cetera, and on occasion there is imperative need for facilities which they provide. That such facilities may be open to us when needed puts an obligation upon us all to see that they are supported.

"Arlington is asked to do its part and you are asked to do yours."

With floods in the middle west, greater demand is made upon the Boston community fund since the Metropolitan Boston Red Cross chapter is included among the agencies which will benefit from the fund and its quota toward the relief of flood sufferers has been increased from day to day as conditions in the flood area grow more acute.

SNOOPIE FINDS "PIRATES" PRODUCTION THE TOPS

Extra! Buck Snoopie writes again or let the drips fall where they will.

The Snoop has been suffering from various moods, perhaps it's the rainy season, the radio, or pirates. There we have it—Pirates!

"The Pirates of Penzance", a local extravaganza, was staged in the P of the D club house Wednesday night (The date January twenty seventh, but we think it's a secret).

The place was simply filled with dashing pirates and enough policemen to keep all the stop lights on Mass. avenue blinking indefinitely.

And you really should have seen the white nighties on the chorus.

Russell T. Hamlet, who perfected a major (or should we say general) role in one week, was charming in blue pajamas.

An orchid sabre to the Pirate King and mixed bouquets to the whole glittering cast.

Remember, fans it's going on again tonight and tomorrow evening at the club house on Academy street.

In the lead roles are Robert Rutledge, Warren Ford, James Carmody, Russell T. Hamlet, Dorothy Robinson, Elizabeth Howe, Lillian Rice, Mildred Anderson and David Kennedy.

In the chorus are: Sopranos—Ethelwyn Bartlett, Margaret Hall, Lillian Snow, Helen Center, Dorothy Delay, Laura Sampson, Anne Kennedy, Helen Bowley, Estelle Robertson, Florence Tee.

Altos—Dorothea Johnson, Beatrice Ring, Jessie Kennedy, Ethel Belyea, Nancy Webb.

Tenors—Carl Fowler, John Matthews, Francis Chamberlain, Irving Poole, James Dingey, Paul Dwinell, Paul Hutchinson.

Baritone—James Snow, Arthur Sampson, Harold Yeames, Maurice Tulin.

Basses—Brenton Roberts, Parker Wood, Donald Robertson, Merrill Cook, Everett Glines.

The orchestra includes: Daniel Bruno (concert master), Virginia Carleton, Bernadine Brooks, James Powers, Leonard Wood, Virginia Brooks, Guy Moulton, Harry Knight, Augustus and Malvina Mazocco, Ralph Russomando, Ernest R. Llewellyn, Jane Rouse.

Last but not least, the production is under the direction of Edward W. Center who does a marvelous job.

See you at the Theatrical Ball.

Appeal Made For Sufferers In Flood Area

Through the Salvation Army and the American Red Cross appeals have been issued soliciting clothing and money to help relieve the suffering of refugees in the disastrous floods which have already driven over a million persons from their homes and destroyed over four hundred million dollars of property along the Mississippi.

Want Clothing
The Salvation Army, appeals to the people of Arlington for clothing to be despatched to the flooded areas. There is an urgent need for warm clothing including underwear, children's clothing and coats. Residents who desire to make contributions of clothing are asked to call their nearest Salvation Army Corps office, or Garrison 4725, and a truck will be sent to call for the clothing. Immediate assistance is solicited.

Kiwanis Club Helps
At yesterday's meeting of the Kiwanis club, $25 was voted as a donation toward the cause. Because of its affiliation with the Community Federation fund drive, the Red Cross will not make direct solicitations, it is understood, but Boston's quota to help flood sufferers has risen to $300,000. Money sent to the Federation at 70 Federal street, Boston and labelled, "For flood relief" will be turned over to the American Red Cross. The NEWS learned from a worker in the Metropolitan Boston Red Cross office yesterday afternoon.

Party To Aid Sufferers
A bridge and whist party will be held in Ye Lantern Hall on Pond Lane next Monday evening, the proceeds of which will be used to help flood sufferers. The sponsors are Mrs. Edward J. Cropper, Mrs. Fred Allen and Miss Anna B. Callahan. The public is invited.

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR BIRTHDAY BALL

Brilliant Program To Take Place In Robbins Town Hall Saturday Evening — Vaudeville, Concert, Grand March And Massing Of Colors Among Features — Proceeds To Be Used In Fighting Infantile Paralysis

Young and old in Arlington as well as in other communities all over the country will dance tomorrow evening so that some unfortunate, some day, may walk. The occasion will be the President's Birthday Ball to raise funds with which to combat the dreaded infantile paralysis disease.

The local entertainment and dance to be held in Robbins town hall will open with selections by Al Bowen and His Men of Rhythm. This will be followed by six acts of vaudeville featuring professional artists engaged by the W.P.A. Miss Irene Charron's pupils will then appear in dance specialties. Paul Powers will complete the program with vocal selections. Following the stage show, the massing of colors with the American Legion Post 39 color bearers taking part will take place. This will be followed by the grand march with Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock as marshal. General dancing to the music of the popular Men of Rhythm will complete the evening's program.

The hall will be suitably decorated by G. O. Anderson & Sons, well-known Arlington florists. P. Joseph McManus is general chairman of the large committee, including many prominent local men and women, in charge of this affair which will be

CHURCHES OF CHRIST
SCIENTIST

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday January 31.
The Golden Text is: "The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing" (Zephaniah 3:17).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust" (Matthew 5:43-45).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When the human element in him struggled with the divine, our great Teacher said: 'Not my will, but Thine, be done'—that is, Let not the flesh, but the Spirit, be represented in me. This is the new understanding of spiritual Love. It gives all for Christ, or Truth. It blesses its enemies, heals the sick, casts out error, raises the dead from trespasses and sins, and preaches the gospel to the poor, the meek in heart" (p. 33).

Large Bequests In Liston Will

Several large bequests were made in the will of the late William P. Liston, of 163 Pleasant street, which was filed in Middlesex County Probate court last Friday. Mr. Liston passed away a few weeks ago. To his brother, Robert J., of Chicago, he left his personal and real property. To Agnes W. Wellington, Virginia Wellington and Arthur J. Wellington, all of Arlington, he bequeathed each $5,000. Ethel M. Clark of Boston receives a like amount by the will.

All the rest of the estate both personal and real is bequeathed to the Day Trust company of Boston and Arthur J. Wellington to be put in trust to invest and reinvest and to pay the net income at regular intervals to his brother, Robert J. Liston. Upon the latter's death the trust property is to be distributed to some thirty people and organizations, including $10,000 to St. John's Church, $1,000 to the First Parish, $2,000 to St. James Episcopal church of Cambridge, $1,000 to the Church of the Ascension of Chicago, $1,000 to the Symmes Hospital, $1,000 to the Arlington Visiting Nursing association and $1,000 to the Frances E. Willard Settlement of Boston.

Birthday Ball

who are willing and desirous of purchasing tickets. That condition is largely adjusted by the several places at which tickets may be purchased—at the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association, the offices of Town Clerk; Henry E. Keenan, Arlington Center; John J. O'Leary, Arlington Heights, and at Brown's Drug Store, East Arlington.

The members of the committee have been untiring in their efforts to secure results which are directed to one goal, the relief of those suffering from infantile paralysis and who, without regular treatments, which this fund will provide, would face a bleak and hopeless future. Special recognition is paid by the committee to the generous space given gratis by the Arlington Advocate, and the Arlington News to enable their readers to become fully informed of the purpose of this worthy activity. The Arlington District Nurses Association has unceasingly given every aid. During the past year local nurses have willingly transported crippled children to and from the clinic. Their quarters have been available at all times. The Association receives no compensation from this fund.

The goodwill that pervades the committee, made up of men and women of both political parties, representing all classes and creeds, is indicative of the sincerity of their efforts and the worthiness of their cause. To be sure one meets occasionally a person of petulant prejudices whose only criticism seems to be that the ball is called the President's Ball. Surely a bedside visit to a little sufferer would dissolve the ice of prejudice in the heart of the most adamant partisan.

Local Cases Treated

In a letter received this week from Arthur T. Legg, M.D., of the Harvard Infantile Paralysis Commission he states "You will undoubtedly be interested to know that during 1936 there were eleven active Treatment Clinic cases and twenty-four active cases in all, in Arlington, receiving 267 treatments." Let us repeat here that the gross receipts from the January 1936 Ball amounted to $585.79. Of this amount $141.53 was sent to the National Committee for research work by specialists in approved laboratories in an attempt to ascertain the cause and to discover a cure of infantile paralysis. The cost of maintaining the weekly clinic in Arlington is $250 per year. Each patient has treatments prescribed by the most competent authority in the disease, and treatments are given only by an expert technician. Many of the mechanical appliances necessary to give relief and support are expensive.

The financial success of the President's Ball is imperative if this relief work is to continue. There is now no question of its success. The more in attendance the greater will be the enjoyment. The entertainment will start at eight o'clock. A crowded hour of stage attractions is arranged. At nine o'clock the Grand March will form, immediately preceded by the marching of the colors by American Legion Post.

Dancing will begin at 9:30 and until twelve o'clock. Al Bowen's orchestra will provide the kind of music that none can resist. Every one will dance. Dress is optional. Step out and have a good time and bring cheer to those little ones who so sadly need our aid.

Will Give Talk On Laundry Industry

At Hambury hall, Ring Sanatorium, Arlington Heights, on Friday evening, February 5 at seven-thirty, F. Hilliard Young, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Laundry Owners Association, will present a talking motion picture lecture on the "Growth and Development of the Laundry Industry."

This illustrated lecture, educational in character, portrays wash-day procedures in far away places and in strange lands and brings the history of laundry practices from the earliest times to the development of the scientific laundry industry of today in America. On this occasion the talk is being given through the courtesy of the Laundry Association to the students of the Ring School of Psychiatric Nursing, and the faculty of the school takes pleasure in inviting the citizens of Arlington to attend this showing of the film.

Following the lecture a question period will be conducted by Mr. Young and discussion will be encouraged. This is an opportunity to learn what happens to the family wash when it goes to the laundry.

"Boomerang" In Interest of Anti-War Education

An unusual combination of professional and local talent will be used in the play, "Boomerang" to be presented at the Town Hall on Friday evening, February fifth, at 8:00 P. M. The play is sponsored by the Arlington Peace Conference in the interests of anti-war education.

It is especially timely in its emphasis because of the Neutrality legislation proposed at Congress at the present time. The play is based on the Nye investigations of the munition makers. Although there is a serious theme, the play itself moves along with both comedy and drama to a very moving climax.

The Friends of the Drama are cooperating with the Amateur Theatre Guild in the production of this play. The Junior Women's Club is providing the ushers. Other local groups are considering cooperating in this enterprise to make it a real community project.

Rev. Clifford O. Simpson, (ARL 0826) is chairman of the Arlington Peace Conference. Mrs. Rose Perry is in charge of casting the play; the other members of the Advisory Council are helping in whatever way they can.

Festival In Aid of St. Jerome Parish To Be Held Jan. 29

Rev. Joseph M. Fitzgibbons, pastor of St. Jerome's Arlington-Belmont Parish, has combined the "Mardi-Gras" and "Valentine" Committees under the chairmanship of John J. Doherty and Edward J. Flavin for an extensive festival to be held in the Belmont Country Club, Belmont, Friday, Jan. 29.

Elaborate preparations are now in progress and the special committees appointed by John Doherty, Chairman, augurs for an exceedingly happy time for all fortunate enough to attend.

The committee for the Festival is as follows: John J. Doherty, Edward J. Flavin, William Kelly, Joseph Nulty, M. Borges, Thomas Greenan, Robert Buckley, Perry Butler, J. Donahue, R. Maher, Robert Kilb, James Carey and Dan Mahoney. The music will be furnished by Lang's High Hatters.

Finance Committee To Meet Salary Committee At Town Hall Tonight

The special committee investigating town salaries conferred with the Board of Selectmen, the Board of Public Works and the joint board last Wednesday evening in the hearing room of the Robbins town hall. This evening, the Finance committee will meet the salary committee to consider recommendations made by the latter committee of which G. Bertram Washburn is chairman.

V. F. W. POST 1775

The next meeting of Arlington Post 1775 V F W will be held in the V F W Hall next Tuesday evening when Junior Vice Commander O. Peterson will present a group which will be obligated. All veterans interested in the V F W and eligible for membership are asked to bring their discharge papers to this meeting.

Senior Vice Commander L. Kiley will make a report on the open meeting which will be held in Junior High East on February 16. At this open meeting a band concert will be presented by the post band and talks on crime prevention will be featured. Speakers will be men well versed in the problem of crime prevention and prominent in this work. They are Chief Archie E. Bullock, Judge Counihan, Sheriff McElroy and Arthur P. Lyman, commissioner of correction. The public is invited. At the last open meeting of the post a large number of people enjoyed a particularly attractive program and the forthcoming open meeting promises to be likewise most interesting.

AMERICAN LEGION

Following the meeting Tuesday evening, Fletcher Reynolds of the Benson Wild Animal Farm gave an illustrated lecture on his own expeditions into Central America.

The Post Activities committee has arranged to have the new baseball picture shown at a meeting in March. This will be a father and son's night.

Comrade Charles Boutillier assisted by Andrew Magnus will have the color squad at the President's Birthday Party at the Town Hall, Saturday.

Post officers will attend the meeting on Saturday afternoon in the State House and the banquet following in honor of our national commander Colmery.

The membership committee is showing good results and our membership has shown a large increase.

The next regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Monday evening at the Old Town hall.

Second Burglary In Same Office In Past
Six Years Yields $26

For the second time in the past six years, the office of Chester R. Whitman, insurance agent, in Arlington Centre was broken into last week and a cash box containing $26 was stolen. It is believed that the thief was familiar with the habits of the occupants of the office building in which the Whitman office is located and that the burglary was well timed since it took place during the night when the two police night shifts are made. In this way the thief escaped the police.

How To Save On DOCTOR BILLS

The one safe way to save on Doctor bills is to visit your Doctor—or call him in—at the first indication that all is not as it should be. Often his timely counsel may save a long and costly illness. It's poor economy to try to do your own prescribing.

And when your Doctor gives you a prescription, be sure to bring it to Brattle Drug Co. Our registered pharmacist will fill it exactly as he directs. Our stocks are large and complete; our prices are always fair.

NEW BERGLUND CHAPEL

Following alterations which include radical changes, the Berglund Funeral Home at 292 Massachusetts avenue has been transformed into one of the largest and finest of its kind in Greater Boston. Under the personal supervision of Christian Berglund, well-known funeral director, the alterations have made possible a funeral chapel which can comfortably seat one hundred people while at the same time a restful, home-like atmosphere has been maintained. The large chapel is softly illuminated by indirect lamps of the most modern type. Each window is equipped with venetian blinds which insure privacy and with dull gold draperies. French doors installed in the middle of the chapel make possible two smaller separate chapels if the occasion demands. The chapel floor is covered in good taste with a deep red rug.

The Berglund Funeral Home which was opened in Cambridge in 1924 and in Arlington in 1931 offers the services of a lady assistant. Assisting Mr. Berglund are his four sons. Mr. Berglund is a member of the Massachusetts Funeral Directors' association as well as a member of several fraternal organizations. He is also member of the Chamber of Commerce.

ELEVEN LOCAL HIGH BOYS IN INTERSCHOLASTICS

Arlington High has entered a complete team of eleven boys in the 10th annual Northeastern interscholastic track meet which will be held in Boston Garden on Saturday Joseph Cronin and Jack Fredericksen will be the head men in the Arlington array, both competing in the 1000-yard run as well as the relay. The first event starts promptly at two o'clock.

The Arlington runners will have some real marks at which to shoot. Here are the records and record-holders for the competition: 50-yard dash—Frank Zeltman, Boston English, 1935, 5.6s; 45-yard low hurdles, Robin Hartmann, Brookline, 1936, 5.6s; 300-yard run, Warren Wittens, Newton, 1936, 34s; 600-yard run, Frank Mascianica, Everett, 1936, 1m. 16.8s; 1000-yard run, William Paulding, Everett, 1935, and Tony Dundulis, Norwood, 1936, 2m. 27.8s; Shot put, Bill Gilligan, Brighton, 1936, 52 ft. 6 5/8 in; high jump, Robin Hartmann, Brookline, 1936, 6 ft. 1 in; relay, Watertown High, 1935, 2m. 16s. Not a single defending individual champion is back for competition, so the battle is a wide open one. Of course Newton is defending its team title and will be favored to keep the crown, but its victory margin is not expected to be so great as it was last year when Newton scored 20 points to 11-1-2 for second place Brookline.

Arlington entries by events: 50-yard dash—Robert Cade, Carl Lemke, George Aldrich, 45-yard low hurdles—Robert Partlow, Arthur Falla, 600-yard run—Walter Smith, George Olcott, Edward Parker, 1000-yard run—Joseph Cronin, Jack Fredericksen. High Jump—Robert Partlow. Relay—Robert Horne, Cade, Lemke, Partlow, Falla, Smith, Cronin, Fredericksen, Aldrich.

SACHEM SCOUT COUNCIL HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Wm. H. Eckert of Watertown was elected president of Sachem Council, Boy Scouts of America, at the 12th Annual Meeting held Saturday afternoon and evening, at the Hotel Commander, Cambridge. The Arlington Boy Scout troops are members of the council.

Other officers chosen were George B. C. Rusk, Arlington and George M. Dimond, Bedford, vice presidents; Paul A. Cameron, Arlington, treasurer; Dr. Franklin P. Hawkes, Arlington, Scout commissioner; the Rev. James F. Haney, Belmont; Earl Baird, Waltham; Edwin C. Towne, Waltham; Thomas L. Sanborn, Concord; the Rev. Francis D. Taylor, Watertown; Arthur A. Dodge, Arlington; Walter K. Shaw, Concord, members-at-large of the executive board.

These chairmen of Council committees were appointed by President Eckert and approved by the Executive Board Organization, Eric L. Johnson of Watertown; Troop Program, Tracy W. Ames of Lexington; Personnel, Kelsey G. Reed of Lexington; Public Relations, Russell P. Wise of Arlington Advisory, Dr. Walter T. Garfield of Belmont; Advisory on Senior Scouting, Prof. Richard S. Meriam of Lincoln.

Mr. Dimond and Mr. Dodge were elected delegates to the National Council. Following the meeting discussion groups were held under the leadership of the following Scouters:

Senior Scouting, Prof. Richard S. Meriam and Alfred C. Woodward; Troop Board of Review, Dr. J. P. Hawkes and Harold R. Dalton; and Troop Programs with Tracy W. Ames and George W. Greenlaw.

While these groups were in session the wives of the Scouters were entertained by Dr. Malcolm Finlay of the Judge Baker Guidance Center.

Praises Scouting. The Annual Banquet was held in the ballroom, with more than a hundred Scouters and their wives sitting down to the dinner. Former President Hawkes was the toastmaster and the principal speaker was Charles S. O'Connor clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts and very active in Boy Scout work in South Boston. Mr. O'Connor paid a high tribute to Scouting and Scouters declaring that Scouting was one of the finest movements in which grown people can participate and efforts put into Scouting will return great dividends. He said it was an inspiration to see adults taking an active part in an unselfish effort to help youth. He praised the members of the Council highly for their work and told them their reward will come when they see the boys they are now helping grow up into fine citizens.

Rev. John Nicol Mark, pastor of the First Parish Church, Arlington, used the makeup of the council to express the amount of intercommunity spirit brought about as a result of the activities of the organization. "It is a remarkable thing," he said, "to see members of eight different municipalities cooperating together for one cause. He also told several good stories.

Scout Executive Christopher H. Gunderson of the Cambridge Council brought the greetings of Cambridge and caused a ripple of resentment to pass through the audience when he rather severely criticized the work of Sachem Council.

But it was only a part of a skit put on by the Council to bring out what the organization had done in Scouting during the past year, and all his charges were thoroughly refuted by chairman, Eric Johnson of the Organization Committee, Tracy W. Ames of the Program Committee and Kelsey Reed of the Personnel Committee.

So resentment turned to delight and from laughter. Eric Johnson read the resolutions accepted at the business meeting, one of 1937 projects and the other recognizing fifteen years or longer service to boys by organizations sponsoring Troops, and between speeches the gathering sang with enthusiasm under the dynamic leadership of Charles E. Mathews of Lexington, with Dr. Everett E. Morrill of Lexington at the piano.

The committee in charge of arrangements was George M. Dimond of Bedford and Eric L. Johnson of Watertown.

Hallisey Miniature Minstrel and Cabaret Next Monday Night

Monday evening, February 1, is the date of the "Miniature Minstrel and Cabaret" by the pupils of the Laura A. Hallisey Dance Studios of Arlington, Lexington and Cambridge, at the Junior High East Auditorium, Foster St., Arlington. With a cast of seventy five in the first part, a glamorous display of costumes will be shown. Eighteen youngsters, dressed as farmer lads and lassies, will do a comedy hick number. A line of twenty-three Front Row Girls will extend across the stage, each with her colorful tambourine. Of these, many are local girls, namely Dorothy Leary, Gloria Allen, Ursula Gallenani, Lorraine Martin, Mary Kelly, Margaret Lennon, Mary Styles, Eleanor Clifford and Marjorie Duffy.

Two young ladies who are especially "De-lovely" will render that song hit and dance, the Misses Doris and Barbara Beasley. A new star is discovered in Little Paty Lou Kelley, 4 years old, who does a Rag Doll Acrobat dance, rising from a heap of colorful rags to a speedy acrobat and then returning to the remains of a broken dolly. Also her impersonation of Mae West is remarkable for such a youngster.

Little Marilyn Swanson, a study in black and white, will sing and dance to "When Did You Leave Heaven?" Edward Duffy, another future Fred Astaire, will appear in an intricate Military Tap, having studied under Miss Hallisey only two and one half months. He also does an amusing hobo number with Louis Kraft, well known Arlington lad, who acts as Interlocutor and Emcee. He also is a recent find, having been a pupil of Miss Hallisey since the Amateur contest at the Town Hall.

Among the other new faces, the following list will be present: Pauline Wright, Patricia Colucci, Janet Nickerson, Audrey Hill, Jane Frisbee, Mary Sappupo, Joseph Pimental, Margaret LeBlanc, and Jean Crookwell.

The second part, which is the scene of a local dine and dance spot, shows a group of young ladies and gentlemen, formally attired, presented as Guest Artists in a fast moving revue. The line of seven talented dancers is notable for its uniformity in many difficult routines. Bob Green, excellent vocalist, will render many selections. Miss Hallisey will dance at the end of the show to the music of Marion Payne and her E. M. Loew's Orchestra.
